

Home

Paola Giannini is a composer and singer who - since the 90's - has been developing a high level, eclectic musical work, which is now widely known in the City of Belo Horizonte and throughout the towns and countryside of the State of Minas Gerais, Brazil. Her partnership with the experienced guitarist and arranger Cláudio Giovanni - a former member of bands Monaliz and Kripton - has produced and gathered an outstanding repertoire, both in quality and variety, encompassing more than two thousand songs in thirteen languages! And that means great music to be enjoyed by people of all age groups and personal tastes, coming out through modern sound-and-light equipment and effects, which makes for memorable performances and state-of-the-art shows!

In other words, you will find everything you need and dream for your event, right here! Â Â Â Â Â Â